Key Financial Figures (EUR)

Indicator	Amount
Total Income	246,130
Total Expenditure	221,375
Surplus for the Year	24,755

Income Overview

During the 2024 financial year, the income of the International Kempo Federation was generated exclusively from membership and affiliation fees paid by national member federations, as well as from competition-related fees linked to the organization of international events.

Membership and affiliation fees continued to represent a stable and predictable source of income, supporting the Federation's core governance and international operations.

Competition-related fees varied depending on the international competition calendar and the number of events organized during the year, reflecting the level of sporting activity undertaken by the Federation.

The International Kempo Federation did not receive public subsidies, sponsorship income, or government funding during the reporting period. All income was generated in accordance with the Federation's Statutes and applicable internal regulations.

Expenditure Overview

Expenditure incurred during the 2024 financial year was primarily related to the organization and coordination of international sporting activities, as well as to governance and administrative operations necessary for the effective functioning of the International Kempo Federation.

Sporting-related expenditure covered costs associated with international competitions, technical coordination, cooperation with event organizers, and activities linked to the Federation's international competition calendar.

Governance and administrative expenditure included statutory meetings, international coordination, communication activities, and general administrative functions carried out in accordance with the Federation's Statutes and internal regulations.

In addition, the International Kempo Federation paid annual membership and affiliation fees to relevant international sport and sport-related organizations, including TAFISA, ICSSPE, IAKS, and other comparable bodies. These memberships support the Federation's international recognition, cooperation, and alignment with global sport governance frameworks.

All expenditure was incurred in line with the Federation's statutory objectives and principles of prudent and responsible financial management.

Financial Position and Liquidity

At the end of the 2024 financial year, the International Kempo Federation maintained a stable financial position and sufficient liquidity to meet its ongoing operational obligations.

Financial resources were managed prudently to ensure the continuity of the Federation's international activities and the proper fulfillment of its statutory objectives.

Available funds and reserves were used exclusively to support operational continuity and international sporting activities. No financial resources were allocated to speculative or non-statutory purposes.

Anti-Doping Financial Independence

Anti-doping activities within the framework of International Kempo competitions are operationally delegated to competition organizers, in accordance with the Federation's regulations and applicable international anti-doping rules.

The International Kempo Federation does not directly manage anti-doping testing programs and does not exercise financial control over testing operations carried out by competition organizers.

No financial arrangements exist that could compromise the independence, objectivity, or integrity of anti-doping activities. The Federation's role is limited to regulatory oversight and coordination within its statutory framework.

Transparency and Ethical Principles

The International Kempo Federation is committed to principles of transparency, integrity, and ethical conduct in all its activities, including financial management.

Financial resources are managed responsibly and used exclusively in support of the Federation's statutory objectives. Governance oversight mechanisms and internal procedures are applied to ensure accountability and to prevent conflicts of interest.

The Federation promotes responsible governance practices and continuous improvement in line with international best practices for non-profit sport organizations.
